1. I have carefully considered the request of []
[] to publish an article on "[]"
[] together with the additional arguments for publication which you made in your memorandum of 13 December 1965. I agree with the position taken by the Executive Director-Comptroller in disapproving this request on 23 September 1965, and your appeal is therefore denied.

2. With regard to the Agency's publication policy, Com[] has been requested to study this matter; and, as you indicated, he is in the process of consulting with those most interested and likely to make a contribution to the study.
We will of course wish to have your views as well as those of the other Deputy Directors before making changes in the policy.
